UNM BSN Partner Summit

“Collaboration & Beyond . . .”

Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much – Helen Keller

WHEN: Monday, May 13, 2019

WHERE: UNM Continuing Education Bldg, Albuquerque

TIME: 8:30am-4:00pm

KEYNOTE: “Partnership Collaboration” with Mark Bennett, co-author of A Field Guide to Good Decisions: Values in Action and co-author of The Art of Mediation

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Nursing Faculty teaching the NMNEC BSN Curriculum, specifically those teaching co-enrolled/dual-degree students

PURPOSE: As NMNEC Nursing Faculty teaching co-enrolled students, let’s get together to discuss and troubleshoot the process in our multi-faceted partnerships

PROPOSED TOPICS:

- Understanding collaboration
- The foundation of the partnership
- Specific BSN courses/specific items in each level
- UNM resources
- Accreditation: documentation, sharing info
- Clinical rosters, schedules, affiliation agreements
- Alumni relations

The planning team will be building the content over the next few months – send us your ideas!
